Sneak Peek of the RTC Virtual Studio
Live from NantStudio's World-Class LED Stage

The RealTime Conference will be hosted live from Los Angeles at NantStudios' Virtual Production Complex. Taking advantage of LED walls and virtual production, RTC founder & host Jean-Michel Blottière will introduce sessions, deliver daily addresses, conduct panels and discussions from a virtual stage in an effort to further advance the development of virtual events.

Don't Miss our Exclusive Real-Time Live Demos & Previews

RTC will host a number of exclusive real-time live demos, among which a showcase and technical review of MetaHuman Creator by Vladimir Mastilović (VP, Digital Humans Technology, Epic Games), Matt Workman (Owner, Cinematography Database LLC) and Mike Seymour (Co-founder and Researcher, Fxguide).

Join ACM SIGGRAPH members Elizabeth Baron (Director at Large, SIGGRAPH), Pol Jeremias-Vila (Conference Chair), Tomasz Bednarz (Frontiers Program Chair), Callie Holderman (Immersive Chair), Carlos Gonzalez-Ochoa (Games Chair), Sylvain Paris (Technical Papers Chair), Chris Redman (General Submissions Chair) – and catch a glimpse of the real-time submissions that will be presented at SIGGRAPH 2021 later this summer.

Speakers will continue the conversation and Q&A in the Speakers Lounge; join their session and ask your own questions to a wide range of industry experts!
